Jonathan W Blythe, Founder Member, BTLA

Jonathan is one of the founder members of the BTLA and is currently adviser to the board. He is a qualified Scottish and English solicitor, but for the majority of his professional life he has been located in Turkey. Having completed an MA (Law) at Istanbul University, in 1995 he set up and ran the Istanbul office of the Scottish oil and gas law firm Ledingham Chalmers. A veteran of the BTC pipeline deal, he has acted for a number of State and Private Entities. Following an MBO in 2004 he has been 12 years with the successor firm Senguler law office. Besides energy and project work, Jonathan advises foreign investors setting up in Turkey across a range of sectors.

Being fluent in Turkish but having a common law background he and his team at Senguler assist clients as they seek to navigate the sometimes uncertain waters of Turkish local regulation. Jonathan is a qualified Arbitrator, and a member of CIARB, he has sat in a number of ICC cases involving multinational parties under both Turkish and English law.

Prof. Dr. Ziya Akinci, Founding Partner, Akinci Law Office, Istanbul, President, Istanbul Arbitration Centre

Ziya Akinci, is the founding partner of Akinci Law Office, carries out his duty as the President of Istanbul Arbitration Centre (ISTAC). Dr. Akinci is a member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration since 2006 and he is also head of the International Private Law Division of Galatasaray University Faculty of Law.

Dr. Akinci focuses primarily on dispute resolution and has acted as counsel, expert, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator in many international and domestic proceedings including international construction projects, energy projects, investment disputes, mergers and acquisitions, international commercial disputes.

Dr. Akinci was admitted to the Bar in 1986. In 2003 he became a professor of Private International Law in Galatasaray University. He has authored numerous publications on topics including but not limited to international arbitration, international construction law, applicable law to the contracts, international family law and the international carriage of goods by road.

Victor P. Leginsky, Chartered Arbitrator B.Ed., J.D., FCIARB

Victor P. Leginsky, Canadian citizen, is an experienced international arbitrator and Barrister & Solicitor, resident in Dubai, UAE since April 2007. Victor has prior high-level mediation experience having been appointed by the Attorney General of British Columbia, Canada, to be the Chair of the Manufactured Home Park Dispute Resolution Committee. He brings over 25 years of arbitration experience in Canada. Victor has earned the internationally-recognized designations of Chartered Arbitrator and Fellow from the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He is a committee member of the International Court of Arbitration (ICC) – UAE and member of ICC-Canada. He is alternate regional chapter co-ordinator of the Association of International Petroleum Negotiators (AIPN) and launched its seminar on oil & gas dispute resolution in the Middle East. He co-instructs, with Prof. Dr. Klaus Peter Berger a practical course in International Commercial Arbitration in Dubai. He is registered as a Barrister with the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) Courts and is a member in good standing of the Law Society of British Columbia, Canada.

Speaker profiles

Okan Demirkan, Partner

Speaker profiles

Mohamed ElGhatit, Director, DIFC-LCIA

Mohamed is the Director of the DIFC-LCIA. He has more than 10 years' experience working in the Middle East. Previously he worked in Hogan Lovells's dispute resolution group where he regularly acted as counsel and arbitrator in a broad range of complex and transnational disputes in various sectors including real estate, construction, oil and gas, IT, hotels and tourism and banking. Mohamed spent a significant portion of his time advising on engineer and general construction disputes. He has handled cases under most of the major arbitration rules, including ICC, LCIA, DIAC, CRCICA, QIAC and UNCITRAL. Arab Civil law qualified, Mohamed is also able to advise clients in regional Court litigation. He has also been involved in Court litigations in numerous jurisdictions including, Egypt, Syria, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, UAE (including DIFC) and England.

Mohamed has been recognised in a number of industry publications including Legal 500 and Chambers where he is seen as a "tremendous asset" and "a bilingual lawyer with a solid knowledge of litigation." Previously, Mohamed worked for the Ministry of Justice in Egypt.

Christopher Grout, Qatar International Court and Dispute Resolution Centre

Christopher has been based at the QICDRC in Doha for just over three years. As Registrar, he is head of the Registry that services both the Qatar International Court and the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Tribunal. He also manages the Dispute Resolution Centre which, over the past year, has played host to a number of arbitrations and mediations where, in the case of arbitrations, the seat has been the State of Qatar. In addition, the Qatar International Court exercises judicial oversight where the seat of the arbitration is the Qatar Financial Centre and so this too falls within Christopher's remit. More specifically, Christopher is responsible for the management aspects of the Centre and in particular the case management of cases that come before the Court and Tribunal. Where required, Christopher will provide procedural directions in relation to cases and, along with his team, will be available to assist parties with any queries they may have in relation to the workings of the Centre. Amongst other things, he chairs a number of QICDRC-user committees, actively engages with the development of legal and judicial education and training in the State of Qatar and provides ad-hoc lectures at a number of universities both in Qatar and the United Kingdom. Furthermore, Christopher is a practicing barrister in England and Wales at 15 New Bridge Street, the Chambers of David Aarongberg QC and James Mulholland QC, having been called to the Bar (Inner Temple) in 2007. Christopher's main specialism is in the field of crime where he regularly defends across a broad spectrum of criminal offences.
